DECATUR GRAND JURY CALLED

Demaree's Confession Said to Implicate 8 Persons and Explain
Method of Selling Loot

The home of Jesse Demaree, who was sentenced on a conspiracy charge in circuit court here yesterday afternoon, in Greensburg, was searched this morning by Big Four detectives and officials and a large quantity of silverware stolen from the home of Dr. D. H. Dean in Rushville August 22, 1919, together with fifteen pair of shoes, was found secreted between the plastering and weatherboarding of the house.

Demaree's confession, which he made here yesterday with the promise that he be permitted to plead guilty to a conspiracy charge, carrying with it a two-to-fourteen years sentence in the state prison, informed the officers of the hiding place for the loot.

Frank Lowe of Greensburg, a brother of Mose Lowe, also of Greensburg, who is held in jail here on a conspiracy charge, was arrested today by the Greensburg police on a first degree burglary charge. It is said that his arrest was the outgrowth of Demaree's confession, which implicated seven or eight persons who heretofore have not been identified with the alleged band of robbers.

Lowe is being held in jail under $5,000 bond, which he is unable to provide.

The Decatur county grand jury has been called in special session for next Monday, and it is the presumption that the call was issued so that the operations of the Demaree gang could be investigated.

In the meantime, further arrests are expected momentarily as the result of Demaree's confession yesterday.

Nothing new developed locally in the Demaree case since the sentencing of Jesse Demaree yesterday afternoon to the state prison at Michigan City for a period of years not less than five nor more than fourteen years.

The court room was filled to capacity all day yesterday waiting the outcome of the trial, and even when the jury was discharged at 2:45, the crowd remained to see the final outcome of the case.

Judge Sparks in passing sentence on Demaree, asked him if he would enter a plea of guilty to the conspiracy charge, with the understanding that the first degree burglary charge would be nolleed, and Demaree stated that he would.

Sheriff Jones conducted the prisoner back to the jail and late yesterday afternoon Mose Lowe, another member of the alleged band, who had been held in jail here on the conspiracy charge, requested that he be taken to the court house for a talk with the officials and attorneys.

He held a long conference behind closed doors, and it was expected that he was going to enter a plea of guilty, but he evidently changed his mind, and was taken back to the jail.

While the full confession obtained yesterday afternoon from Demaree, has not been made public, it is said that he told some interesting facts about the method used by the robbers, and especially as to how they made a market for their stolen merchandise.

Prosecutor Stevens stated that Demaree implicated seven or eight more persons, some of them women. His testimony was taken down in writing and then signed by him, as being the whole truth.

It is said that in the Carthage robbery of the Sharer and Moore hardware store, Demaree implicated Mose Lowe, the man who is in jail here. It was stated yesterday that Carey Wayner, Big Four brakeman of Elkhart, was implicated in this robbery, but Prosecutor Stevens denied this today, but said that he implicated Lowe.

Wayner was with Demaree on the night that he robbed the Dean residence here last fall, but did not take an active part in the work. He stayed at the rear of the house with a revolver and received the goods as they were brought to him by Demaree. These were the facts stated by G. L. Tremain, an attorney for the state.

The Big Four detectives had obtained a confession from Wayner with the promise to him that if he would turn state's evidence and tell everything, he would be immune from punishment.

It is also stated that Wayner is still in the employ of the railroad, and was in Rushville all day yesterday with the officers in the court house. He appeared to be about 23 years old.

Sheriff Jones stated today that he had not made up his mind just when he will leave for Michigan City with Demaree, although it was rumored that he was leaving in the morning. When sentenced, Demaree gave his age as 43.

4 CHILDREN SURVIVE HIM

William D. Hufford, one of the oldest pioneer residents of Rush county, expired last night shortly after seven o'clock at his home a mile and a half southwest of Rushville, following an illness of a complication of diseases and senility.

Mr. Hufford was born almost 84 years ago on the farm on which he died, and during his lifetime had been a resident of this same neighborhood with the exception of five years, which he spent away from here.

His wife preceded him in death 27 years ago, and since that time he has made his home with his sons on the old homestead. Four children survive, Miss Melissa J. Hufford of Madison, Omer of Shirley, Elmer and Robert, who live here.

The funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the late residence, with the Rev. L. E. Brown in charge, and burial will be made in East Hill cemetery.

Grocers' Attorney Says Packers Are Not Following Agreement With U. S.

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Ill., March 26.—"Big Five" meat packers were charged with violation of the spirit of the agreement with the government to dissolve subsidiary industries by attorneys for grocers before the interstate commerce commission today.

Clifford Thorne, representing wholesale grocers, seeking to equalize shipping facilities between the packers and grocers, charged that packers are setting up new companies for the purpose of conducting a business of commodities unrelated to the meat industry.

(By United Press.)
Lexington, Ky., Mar. 26.—Paul Little, aged 12 years, son of E. Little, wealthy oil man, who was kidnapped from the federal building a few days ago, was found in the Phoenix Hotel here early today. The body was unharmed. He himself made a telephone call which resulted in his rescue. The kidnappers escaped. One of the two men, who kidnapped the boy, was going down one elevator while the mother and some of her friends came up another in the hotel, the boy stated.

NEW SALEM STORE
BUILDING UNROOFEDPart of Roof on Home of Will Logan Near New Salem Blown Off and Chimneys Demolished.

NO OTHER DAMAGE REPORTED

The building housing the Perkins store in New Salem was unroofed by the wind last night and part of the roof on the home of Will Logan near New Salem was blown off and the chimneys blown down.

This was the only damage by wind reported in Rush county today. The terrific gale, which was noticed in Rushville and elsewhere in the county last night, was particularly severe in the vicinity of New Salem, but no great damage was done with the exception of that to the store conducted by Jake Perkins and to the Logan home, where pieces of the roof were blown off and the chimneys demolished.

Last night's high wind was the worst of the month of cyclones and tornadoes, which will pass out next Wednesday. March this year has been unusually free of strong winds and the weather has been exceptionally good for March. The prediction for tonight is fair and colder weather, with fair weather tomorrow.

Navy Department Refused to Accept
Suggestions During The War

(By United Press.)
Washington, Mar. 26.—Unpreparedness of the navy resulted in undermanning of vessels, particularly destroyers, during the war, Captain Taussig told the senate naval sub-committee today.

The navy department ignored repeatedly and emphatically, recommendations for increasing the navy personnel and took steps "to prevent the report as to the unsatisfactory personnel conditions from being made public," Taussig told the committee, which is investigating the navy's war record.

MARCH 31 MEETING
PLACES ANNOUNCEDEach Township Will Hold Meeting
So That Farmers May Register Their Stock Schedule

IS A NEW UNDERTAKING

Schedule of Stock Will Enable Federation to Advise Farmers How To Feed in The Future

The meeting places of the townships in Rush county for March 31, when farmers are asked to gather for the purpose of making a schedule of their live stock, has been announced.

The following places in the various townships will hold meetings, Ripley in the Assembly room of the Carthage Library; Center, at the Center township school building; Washington, at the Raleigh school building; Posey, Arlington school; Jackson, Osborn school; Union, Gings school; Walker, Homer school; Rushville, Webb school; Noble, New Salem school; Orange, Moscow school; Anderson, Mirov school and Richland at the Butler school.

To regulate the supply of live-stock according to the demand and keep an even flow onto the market is the one big problem of the farmers in Indiana and of states in the corn belt.

To accomplish this, a schedule has been prepared in co-operation with the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations and a meeting of the organization will be held in every township in the state on Mar. 31 to supply information to the officers of the Federation that will enable them to advise farmers in regard to their feeding plans for the future.

The schedule asks for the number of cattle, sheep and swine on farms Jan. 1, 1920, the number of births and the number brought onto the farms during the quarter for feeding; the number sold, the number slaughtered and the number of deaths on the farms during the quarter; the number of females on hand March 31 for breeding purposes and the number of all stock on hand for feeding; the number that will be finished during the succeeding ninety days; the approximate date they will be ready for market and about the average weight per head.

At this time there is no statistical data available to the farmers that will enable them to successfully plan their feeding projects and avoid a glut on the market at certain periods with a consequent reduction in prices at such times. But with information of the character indicated above, tabulated in ten day periods, by counties and shipping points, the officers of the Federation will be in a position to regulate the flow of meat animals to market to such an extent that when farmers buy their feeder stock they will be sure of a fair profit when it is fully finished and ready for market.

The lack of statistics in live stock markers has caused the farmers to lose thousands of dollars and every member of the organization is being urged to be present at his township meeting on March 31 and fill out a schedule for his farm. It is expected that fifty to sixty thousand reports will be in the hands of state officers and tabulated by the middle of April.

BAUER CABINET
RESIGNS TODAYMajority Socialists Advise Pres.
Ebert to Order Herman Mueller to Form a New One.

ORDER IS BEING RESTORED

Deaths Since Von Kapp Tried to Seize Government Estimated at Close to 3,000 Persons.

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Mar. 26.—The cabinet of Gustav Bauer, formed yesterday, resigned today.

Majority socialists advised President Ebert to order Herman Mueller, who was minister of foreign affairs, to form a new cabinet.

Government advisers here today indicated continued successes of efforts to restore order throughout Germany. The situation in the Rhine provinces is quieting, officials said.

They confirmed earlier reports that the government has come to an agreement with at least a majority of the insurrectionaries and workmen's group.

Reliable estimates today placed the total deaths in the disorders since March 13, when Van Kapp seized the government, at from 2,000 to 3,000, with a similar number wounded.

Public wrath today centered on General Ludendorff. He was attacked bitterly in the press. The people generally have come to believe that Ludendorff played an important part in the Von Kapp plot.

Americans Not To Advance.

Washington, Mar. 26.—President Wilson will inform congress in reply to the Kahn resolution that the American troops on the Rhine will not participate in any advances into Germany to quell internal strife.

The Kahn resolution called on the president to inform congress of the exact status of the American troops in Germany. It is believed that the president's idea is that the Germans must work out their own solution of the Kapp revolution and workmen's revolt that followed.

American troops on the Rhine are there in accordance with the armistice which is still in effect between this country and Germany, it was stated.

GETS CAUGHT IN A STORM

He Also Takes up a Passenger
Which He Doesn't Know About
For Sometime—It Was a Dog

Airplane flights are not always considered a pleasurable pastime, even to some of the expert flyers who make it a daily practice and Lieut. Stacy Hinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hinkle of this city has found it to be the case. Lieut. Hinkle is a pilot attached to the 104th air squadron at Fort Bliss, Texas, and recently had an experience that he will long remember.

In a letter to his parents here he described his trip as follows: "I have lost my ship, 'Gladys' as Marfa needed some ships, so I had to ferry mine down there Tuesday. There was a gale blowing and one of the pilots opened his motor up wide, averaging 173 miles an hour.

That's rather fast, don't you think? The wind was too strong to return that afternoon, so I started back on Wednesday. When I started the wind was blowing against us about 20 miles an hour. It kept increasing until it was a small hurricane. The sand blew up to 3,000 feet and was so thick there that we could not see the ground. The ship was tossed and thrown around like a leaf. Great blasts would strike the ship, the air speed would jump from 80 to 130 miles an hour and the ship seemed to stand still, creak, shiver all over—the roar and shriek of the wind through the wings nearly drowning out the sound of the motor which was wide open, tuning up to 400 horsepower.

The machine would shimmy, and drop 1,000 feet, then up 500 feet, over on one wing, up on her nose, and it seemed as if there was no control to it. It was one time that I wished that I was on the ground.

I didn't see the field until I landed. We had sent a telegram that we were coming, but we were never expected to land alive, as there were five ambulances out ready to pick us up. An examination of the machine revealed that five of the wires that are fastened to the wings were nearly broken in two. In the same gale, Lieut. Green, an old timer was killed at Sanduson."

The following article appeared recently in the El Paso, Texas, Times: The airplane was circulating for altitude and the endless drone of the motor was the only noise that broke the silence of the air, when—

Lieutenant Stacy C. Hinkle, pilot, attached to the 104th air squadron at Fort Bliss, felt a premonition that the sacred laws of the air service had been broken.

He silenced his motor, looked around and espied a shaggy head peering over the top of a bundle of rags that had been placed in an obscure corner of the observer's apartment. Latekily for the stow-away, the observed had failed to appear in time to make the flight.

Lieutenant Hinkle was in a quan-

HORSE-RADISH FOR HOME USE

Market Growers Also Will Find It Profitable Cash Crop—Propagation Is From Roots.

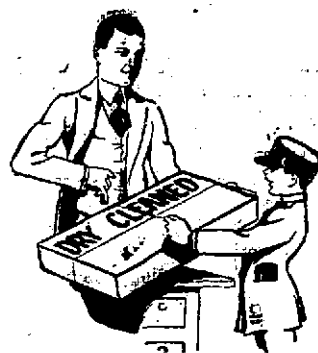

Horse-radish should be grown in every garden for home use, and market growers will find it profitable to handle as a cash crop to realize on during the winter. Successful growers have found the following methods approved: Roots may be set either in the spring or fall, although the spring is best, for the reason that the winter freezing of the ground sometimes causes the roots to starve. Roots for setting should be of uniform length, and set in hills as far apart as one would ordinarily plant corn. The plant does not produce seed, therefore propagation from roots is necessary.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Rush Budd of the St. Paul's M. E. church will hold an exchange in the Kramer meat market in North Main street, Saturday morning. All good things to eat will be sold.

MILLIONS Suffer from Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their ill health can be traced directly to acid-stomach. Here is the reason: poor digestion means poor nourishment of the different organs and tissues of the body. The blood is impoverished—becomes weak, thin, sluggish. A number of many kinds spring from such conditions. Biliousness, rheumatism, lumbago, eczema, general weakness, loss of power and energy, headache, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression—even more serious ailments such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble—all of these can often be traced directly to acid-stomach. Keep a sharp lookout for the first symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating, that awful painful smart after eating, and sour, gassy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach miseries. Thousands say they never dreamed that anything could bring such speedy relief—and make them feel so much better in every way. The EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. Make your life worth living—no aches or pains—no blues or melancholy—no more of that tired, listless feeling. Be well and strong. Get back your physical and mental punch; your vim, vigor and vitality. You will always be weak and ailing as long as you have acid-stomach. So get rid of it now. Take EATONIC Tablets—they taste good—you eat them like a bit of candy. Your druggist has EATONIC—50 cents for a big box. Get a box from him today and if you are not satisfied he will refund your money.

VARIOUS LIVE STOCK DISEASES CONQUERED

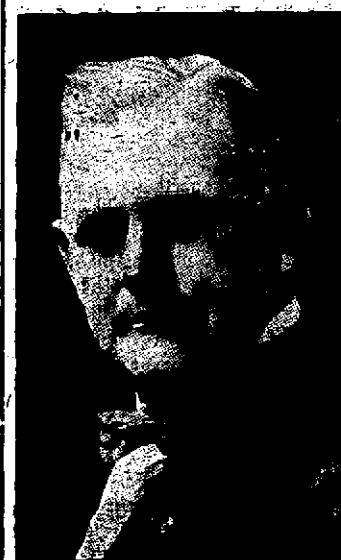

Constructive Side of Regulatory Work Pointed Out.

Closer Co-operation Is Developing Between the Public and Inspectors and Veterinarians of Bureau of Animal Industry.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Efforts are being made by the Bureau of Animal Industry, to point out the constructive side of regulatory work affecting quarantine, inspection, and general interstate handling of live stock. Disease eradication, the chief of the bureau points out, is the basis of ample production and a final analysis of liberal consumption and proper nutrition. If the live-stock men of the country had to contend with pleuropneumonia, foot-and-mouth disease, surra, rinderpest, and other animal scourges on top of their present problems, production certainly would fall and consumption would be curtailed by reason of high prices necessary to cover the risks of growing live stock. Fortunately, the list of diseases mentioned may be considered a problem already solved. They do not exist in the United States and the bureau is on the alert to keep them out. The bureau has also taken energetic steps to check attempts at shipping diseased stock interstate and has perfected its regulations especially with regard to bovine tuberculosis.

Coupled with those efforts and to acquaint stockmen with the constructive side of the work, the department has pointed out at frequent intervals the purpose of the regulations. As a result closer co-operation is developing between the public and the bureau's inspectors and veterinarians—a condition helpful to the effectiveness of field work.

"Oh H---! What's Time to a Hog"

Let's look into this. Time means nothing to a hog. But what does it mean to the hog owner? A quick turnover eliminates to a large degree the chances of a hog's death, and of its being crippled. The amount of feed consumed is less—that's money economy. The investment is a short time one. Your money is put to work feeding another bunch of swine, or to some other good purpose.

Make your hogs efficient, quickly and cheaply by feeding Fat Back Hog Feed. It feeds in a self-feeder, dry in a trough, as a wet feed, or as a slop.

We carry other balanced ration feeds besides Fat Back.

A Word as to Prices

As was the case the past Fall, there is a wide range of price in Spring Ready-to-wear. The woman or miss who wants a coat, for instance, for $25, is able to make selection from good wearable fabrics, stylishly made. The greater demand, however, is for the better grade of merchandise, and we have given special attention to this. The point to remember, we believe, is that one generally gets what she pays for, and that is true in our own merchandising, as well as yours.

PHYSICIANS DECIDE TO RAISE THEIR RATES

Increase Amounting to About Thirty Percent Effective March 29,
Agreed on at Meeting.

APPLIES TO WHOLE COUNTY

The Rush County Medical Association, which is comprised of the county physicians, held a meeting here last night, when it was deemed necessary to increase the price of their services. The increase which will be effective Monday in Rush county is about 30 per cent higher than the rates now charged. Under the new charges, day visits in the city will cost $2.00, night visits from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m., will be $3.00, and office cases $1.00 and up. Country visits will be charged the same as city visits, with the additional cost of 50 cents a mile. Confinement cases under the new rate will be $20 and up.

The steady increase in both medicine and other commodities was given as the reason of the increases.

ARLINGTON CONCERNS BEFORE COMMISSION

Remonstrances Filed Against Petitions For Increase in Both
Gas and Phone Rates

EVIDENCE HEARD IN BOTH

Two petitions were presented yesterday to the public service commission, one by the Arlington Telephone Company and the other by the Arlington Natural Gas Company. In each case an increase in the price of their service was asked for, the telephone company being given a hearing at ten o'clock and the gas company in the afternoon at two o'clock.

The telephone company now makes a charge of $1.00 a month for telephones, with the exception of the stockholders, who pay 75 cents. The company did not request any certain increase, but left it up to the commission to decide what would be a just increase. A petition remonstrating against an increase was filed, being signed by 80 telephone users. When the hearing was held, there was no one of the signers present to present the petition, and it was thrown aside.

A remonstrance was presented by the gas users, based on the fact that there was no gas when it was wanted and needed. In either case, the public service commission has not made a report.

Essex Almost Doubles Light Car Endurance

Essex has proved that weight and size are no longer necessary to finest car quality.

Its 3037 miles in 50 hours is the official world's long distance endurance record. The same stock chassis in three starts made a total of 5870 miles at a speed above a mile an hour—a grind equal to years of hard road use. Yet at the end it showed no measurable wear.

These tests proved that the light weight, moderate priced, economical Essex has reliability and endurance such as few large, high priced cars offer.

With Essex you sacrifice none of the beauty, comfort, speed or power of the costliest cars. You will take pride in it from the start. And time will increase your respect for it. For you will find it always ready to meet any demand.

Essex set a world's sales record in 11 months because it is the car people want. This year demand far exceeds production. Only an order placed now will bring you your Essex when you want it.

A Business Man For President

The verbose Samuel G. Blythe thinks he has discovered something, and has prevailed upon the editor of the Saturday Evening Post to yield him valuable space in which to present his discovery to the "more than two million" subscribers of that enterprising columns of text could be condensed into eleven words and lose nothing in force or meaning thereby. The sole thought conveyed by his article is that the people should elect a non-partisan business man as their next president.

"The author complains that both political parties are hopelessly boss-ridden, and that the candidates to be presented to the voters at the next elections will all be hand-picked by bosses. Mr. Blythe suggests that there is ample time before

I AM MORE GRATEFUL TO TANLAC than words can express, for it has given me health and happiness after twelve long years of suffering, was the enthusiastic statement made the other day by Mrs. Olivine Peltier, of Vermont.

"I am more grateful to Tanlac than words can express for it has given me health and happiness after twelve long years of suffering," was the statement made the other day by Mrs. Olivine Peltier, No. 26 East Allen Street, Winooski, Vt.

"I had been troubled so long with nervousness and sleeplessness that my housework was a drudgery and I got little pleasure out of life. My appetite left me entirely and at times I could hardly bear the sight of food and what little I did eat caused me severe suffering afterward. Gas would form on my stomach so badly that it affected my heart and I thought I had heart trouble.

"I was so nervous I would jump at the least unexpected noise and would drop everything I had in my hands. I got so weak and faint at times that I would have to catch hold of something to keep from falling over. My sleep was broken and restless and I was losing weight rapidly. I had little strength or energy and, as I had tried all kinds of medicines without relief, I had become very much discouraged over my condition.

"My husband had been taking Tanlac and when I saw what wonderful results he was getting I decided to try it myself and now I think as much of Tanlac as he does because it has helped me the same way.

"My appetite has come back and everything agrees with me perfectly. I am taking on weight rapidly and have already gained nine pounds; in fact, I feel perfectly well in every way. Tanlac has done wonders for me and I am only too happy to tell others about it."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Maunilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, and in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty.—(Adv.)

the conventions for the people to rise up in their might and get behind a man whose sole qualifications for the presidency are that he is an American. Just what the Blythe brand of American looks like the reader is permitted to learn along toward the end of the tenth column. The experience of certain citizens of Los Angeles is detailed at length, giving a history of the Commercial Federation of Los Angeles county, whose prime object was to send business men to the California legislature. After highly commending the patriotic action of these citizens the readers of the Post are supposed to be convinced that what the nation needs is a business man in the White House.

"A business man is one who has devoted himself primarily to the commercial field. His conception of the methods of legislation, the relation between the executive and legislative branches of the government, our complex systems of revenue and appropriation, and the thousand and one other activities of the government are scarcely more familiar to him than to any other citizen of intelligence. His life has been bound up with some detail of our industrial structure, with the business of which he is acquainted, but his comprehension of all the ramifications of the nation's business is likely to be exceedingly limited. But a president is successful only in proportion as he is equipped with understanding of the needs of the people in every line of governmental activity.

A legislator, with years of experience in one or both houses of congress, has already dealt with questions similar to those with which a president is confronted. Unlike the average business man, his view of national affairs has not been limited to the commercial aspect. If he has been a senator he has participated in the conduct of our foreign relations through the treaty-making power, and advantage which the business man has not had. If he has been a member of the house he has had a hand in the initiation of tariffs and in the expenditure of the public funds. In whichever House he has served he has acquired a knowledge of our domestic affairs, immigration, public lands, colonial possessions, our Indian wards, the raising and equipping of armies and navies, the improvement of rivers and harbors, our merchant marine, and scores of other matters, a familiarity with all of which must be possessed by a President of his Administration to prove a success. With all of them the business man has had but a superficial, if any, acquaintance.

Luckily several of the presidential candidates in both parties have served terms in either or both the Senate and House, and would bring to the office of chief executive the lessons learned in their legislative experience. Regardless of the efforts of Mr. Blythe to create prejudice against any but a non-partisan business candidate, the people are not likely to follow his lead in supporting a man who can show no special qualifications for the office.

All eyes are going to be turned on the supreme court for a time now. That worthy tribunal is to decide whether or not a man may be permitted to stock up his cellar with booze for his own use. Yes, there will be some anxious eyes turned toward Washington—very anxious.

Some folks feel so terribly bad about suffering humanity in Europe that they neglect their duties to American humanity here at home; likewise to Americans killed and outraged in Mexico.

The postoffice department will soon establish an air route to San Francisco. This will enable the Hon. Albert Sidney Burleson to flit out there any day during the convention season.

General Wood started from one town to another on a handcar the other day, but the Lord blew up a storm and chased him back. The general, we presume, would term it "executing a masterly withdrawal in pursuance of previous plans."

No, a word to the wise is not always sufficient. Sometimes they think they know it all.

Birds Which Pay
Way in the County

The state department of conservation has prepared a series of sixteen articles, one on each of the sixteen most voracious insect pests which annually collect a tax of many thousands of dollars by destroying fruit and cereal crops. These articles are written for the benefit of farmers so that these friends of the farmers may be protected and allowed to carry on their valuable work.

The robin is a North American bird and its range is east of the Rocky Mountains, and extends from the Gulf of Mexico to Labrador. Audubon recounts that the first bird he saw when he stepped on the rugged shores of Labrador was the robin. Usually the spring migration of the robin begins about the first of February. In exceptional years it is delayed as late as the first of April. Like many other species of our birds the males come first.

The robin is about 10 inches long. The bill of the adult male is strong; the head, back of the neck and tail is black; the back and rump are an ash color; the wings are black; edged with light ash; three small spots of white border the eye; the throat and upper part of the breast is black and the whole of the rest of the breast is of dark orange. The colors of the female are more of a light ash, less deepened with black; and the orange on the breast is much paler and more broadly skirted with white.

For his meat diet the robin not only eats angle worms, but bugs, spiders, grasshoppers, crickets, caterpillars, earthworm and army worms. It will be noticed that most, if not all, of these are destructive pests. The robin is accused of taking fruit but it has been demonstrated that less than 5 per cent of his food consists of cultivated fruit. His song which is delicious and his good record, make him a most welcome bird in Indiana.

DOCTOR GIVES ALL TO SAVING OF HUMANITY

Is to Continue Good Work by Endorsing and Recommending Trutona

Indianapolis, Ind., March 25.—There is none more familiar with medicines and therefore more capable of judging of the merits of a preparation than the doctor. That is why the following statement made a few days ago by Dr. A. J. McDonald, a well known and highly respected physician here, should prove of interest to hundreds of people suffering from similar troubles. In recommending Trutona Dr. McDonald not only backs his claim with fifty years of medical practice, but he has also taken Trutona and knows from experience just what it will do.

"I know of no medicine that I could recommend to aged, weakened, run down men and women that would equal Trutona," is the tribute the doctor pays the Perfect Tonic.

"Trutona came to my attention at a time when I was nervous and generally broken in health. Overwork had caused a weakened and feeble condition of my nerves. I seemed to have given out entirely. Why, I could not raise my hand to my head before I began the use of Trutona.

"I have given this tonic a fair trial and as a result my strength has returned and my nerves are as steady as ever. I have no interest in the Trutona Medicine Company, but I have given all my life to the relief of suffering humanity and I'm going to continue that policy by heartily endorsing and recommending this wonderful tonic, Trutona."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Rushville at Hargrove & Mullin's drug store.—Adv.

We Mean It!

For about four months this bank has been urging the farmers hereabouts to read THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. We have done it because we believe in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. This Great National Farm Weekly offers actual money-making helps to those farmers who read it regularly and follow its advice. Its subscribers have in the main become the most prosperous farmers in their counties the Nation over. And that is why we should like to see it in every farm home in our county. We mean it when we say: Read

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

In a recent investigation among farmers the question was asked: "What helps you most?" One-third answered: "My farm paper." They were able to put a dollars-and-cents value on the advice they read. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is National—broad enough to cover the United States and give a nationwide viewpoint; and at the same time it is local enough to treat of methods and practices section by section. Subscribe for a year! It will cost you $1.00 for 52 big weekly issues—and many a farmer has profited $100.00 from hints in a single issue. Terrible Tortures From Itching Skin Diseases

No Sure Relief Until the Cause Is Removed.

When the blood becomes infected with millions of tiny disease germs that attack the skin, then the fiery irritation and intense itching will remain with you until these germs are removed from the blood.

Genuine relief, therefore, can only be expected from a treatment that goes right to the seat of the trouble, and strikes at its cause. Such a remedy is S. S. S., the reliable old blood purifier that kills the germs of disease, and sends a new supply of rich red blood coursing through the veins.

S. S. S. has been used successfully in some of the worst cases of eczema and other skin disorders.

CITY FIREMAN HAS MADE GAIN OF 20 POUNDS

Had Flu and Lost 48 Pounds Before He Started Taking Vola-Tonic

Fireman J. W. Jones, of Company No. 21, Cincinnati Fire Department, who lives at 1844 Westwood avenue, Cincinnati, has gained 20 pounds weight since he started taking Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength."

"I was in a seriously weakened, run down condition when I got over influenza last winter and I kept losing weight right along until I had lost 48 pounds in all," fireman Jones said.

"My appetite was almost completely gone and the little food I did eat didn't agree with me and didn't do me any good. Gas formed on my stomach after every meal and I was troubled with constipation, too. I had headaches nearly all the time.

"I have an excellent appetite since I have been taking Vola-Tonic and everything I eat digests perfectly. As a result I have gained 20 pounds. The constipation has disappeared and the headaches have left me.

"My wife took Vola-Tonic also after she had influenza and it made a new woman of her.

"Both of us are satisfied Vola-Tonic is just what we needed."

Thousands of men and women praise Vola-Tonic just as highly as Fireman Jones does because of the strength and better health they have derived through its use. If you are feeling weak and run down try this medicine that has helped so many others.

You can get Vola-Tonic, "Builder of Strength," in Rushville at Frank E. Wolcott's.—(Adv.)

HOUSING QUESTION ACUTE IN BOSTON

Contracts Have Been Let For Erection of 500—Room House to be Owned by Occupants

RENTAL PRICES INCREASE.

Tenants Wishing to Purchase an Apartment May Take Possession And Pay Monthly Payments

Boston, March 26—The housing situation here is acute according to real estate authorities and contractors, who hold out little hope of relief until the cost of building material is lowered and construction resumed.

The shortage of private dwellings and apartments is due to a great extent to the fact that during the war there was very little building. The end of the war found material so expensive that both individuals and contractors hesitated to build.

The chief demand at present is for apartments of from one to five rooms and houses of five room. An apartment consisting of living room, bedroom, bath and kitchenette which in 1914 rented for from $20 to $30, brought from $35 to $50 last year, and at present rents for between $40 to $80 a month.

Contracts have been let here for the erection of a 500-room apartment block, the apartments of which will be sold to the tenants.

The plans call for apartments from 1 to 6 rooms. In addition the building will have a community kitchen, recreation hall, dining room music hall, roof garden and sleeping porches.

Tenants wishing to purchase an apartment may take possession and pay monthly installments in the same manner in which rent is paid. These installments will be applied to the purchase price and the tenant will be given a deed to his apartment when he completes his payments. The monthly "rent-installments" will be much less than the average rent for an apartment.

Cleveland Needs 30,000 Homes.

Cleveland, O., March 26. U. P.—Cleveland is due for another year of rising rents, according to E. A. Roberts, secretary of the Builders' Exchange. The housing shortage will be more acute than ever, he believes.

High wages and high building material prices complicate a situation already held critical due to the lack of housing facilities. It was estimated that Cleveland requires at least 30,000 more homes to meet the present normal demand.

Chief among the reasons for the pessimistic outlook, he said, were the practical stoppage of building during the war; the normal increase in population and the additional influx of workers above the normal increase to supply the extraordinary demand for labor in the industrial plants.

Unfurnished living quarters, which five years ago, could be rented for from $15 to $32 per month now bring all the way from $40 to $75 and furnished apartments available five years ago for from $35 to $50 now range from $80 to $125.

The principal reason for the situation is that while the population has increased during the last few years the building program has slumped.

50,000 "Homeless" in Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Wis., Mar. 26—Milwaukee needs living quarters for 35,000 or 50,000 people. The city's normal increase in population has been at the rate of 7,000 a year but its building program has been at a standstill.

It was the war but since the war ended cost of labor and all building materials have increased so that building is prohibitive.

The Cold That Hangs On

This is No. 5 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

A cold is simply an inflammation of some part of the air passages—throat, larynx or bronchial tubes—just like a sore is an inflammation of the skin. A long continued cold means constant inflammation and this constant inflammation frequently weakens the air passages so that they become an easy point of attack for invading germs of more serious diseases. A "cold that hangs on," therefore, is simply nature's "red flag" indicating that there is "trouble below," and this warning should never be neglected. Nightly applications of Vick's VapoRub will aid nature to clear up that inflammation. Because Vick's acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to The Vick Chemical Company, 235 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

I suffered less of appetite, my blood was bad and I had no ambition to do anything; I was miserable. I got so bad I had to take to my bed. I started taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I soon began to feel better and three bottles of this medicine was all I had to use to put me in fine condition. I had a good appetite, my strength came back, and I once more felt that life was worth living. There is no better medicine—I do heartily recommend it. For Dependable Service Install The Silent ALAMO

Electric Light and Power Plant

Everybody knows the advantages of electric light and electric power. Everybody wants this modern day convenience. The big question is "What plant shall I select?"

Take our advice. Select the plant that's silent—the plant that's free from terrific vibration—the plant that won't quickly shake itself to pieces. Install the wonderful Silent Alamo.

No Vibration—No Noise

In the Silent Alamo there is no noise—due to the quiet operation of the 1 1/2 Super Silent Motor with the rotating sleeve-valve. There's no severe vibration—due to scientific balancing of weight.

Thousands of farmers as well as staid old engineer experts have been amazed by this silent plant. Come in and see a demonstration. Learn why the Silent Alamo assures years of service.

Hairy Chapeaux Is Popular This Year

By MARGARET ROHE
(Written for United Press.)

Although it's chilly and the ground is still quite white with snow, it's really joyous Springtime. For the calendars say so: And the hat trees and the shoe trees are in bloom, the windows show New York, Mar. 26—Time was when we used to fondly believe the hat of straw denoted Spring and summer! Surely no one could make such a sad mistake nowadays. To be sure a few straw hats do begin to appear atop chic heads when snow drifts start to melt beneath the urge of spring. By the time the first pussy willow purr and robins twitter straw hats have been cast aside however and confections of taffeta, tulle, ribbon or satin crown the coiffures of the spring and summer maids and matrons.

The hats of hair so frail and airy of weave, abloom with gorgeous flora, are the most appropriate and seasonably summery hats on view but the majority of the close little turbans of satin, taffeta and ribbon suggest Fall and Winter quite as much as Spring Feather trimmings, straggly glycerined ostrich, aigrettes and Paradise, adorn the Spring chapeaux irrespective of the seasons. Flowers do ornament models but raffia, beads, tassels and ribbons give them a close run for popularity.

Ribbons especially have come into a glorified success as a neat adornment this season. Entire turbans and brimmed hats are made of narrow ribbons woven together like those paper mats of kindergarten days. Wide brimmed horse hair hats have immense sashers of wide pastel tinted satin ribbon tied around their crowns and dripping soft wide ends and loops almost to the waist line. Frayed ribbons offer a novel trimming that promises many smart effects. A close turban made of narrow bands of alternating varicolored ribbons quaintly frayed presents a surface not unlike the grooved hair edged back of the armadillo. A small round hat of rose straw has a turned up brim all faced with narrow rose hued grosgrain ribbon sewed together in neat and vertical rows that fray out in a riot of silky rosy fluff at the brim edge. Another quaint ribbon conceit is a tall narrow turban of midnight blue satin shaped like a Cossack's cap which is completely covered with wee wiggly loops of tiny blue velvet ribbon to simulate the astrachan so close to the Tartars head and heart.

Tassels long, heavy and gay bob from almost every form of head covering but seem most at home from the little close round Chinese hats of straw, silk faced in contrasting tint. Beads of gayly colored wood in shapes quaint and bizarre girdle crowns of tulle amidst a fluff of tulle for brim and swaying strands of varicolored beads anchored to opposite sides of fan brimmed Cleopatraesque head dresses hang in festive festoons beneath the chin or chins of ladies addicted to the Oriental modes.

Foot notes of the season become more and more short vamped and Frenchy as well as ornate of strap, buckle and bow. Their prices are as high as their French heels and after you have purchased the necessary summer quota of one white pair, one patent kid pair, one brown undoubtedly be as short of cash as suede pair and one of grey you will as they are of vamp. They are worth most any sacrifice however, for so seductively alluring and high arched and small do they make the foot that the female who longs to be a vamp will find the short vamp a telling factor in her heart's desire.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or pore between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

WATSON TALKS AT MAINE CONVENTION

Indiana Senator Charges President Wilson With Playing Politics During The War

DELEGATES UNINSTRUCTED

Four at Large and Eight District Representatives to National Convention Named

Bangor, Me., March 26.—Four delegates at large and eight district delegates were elected to the Republican national convention without opposition at the state convention of the party here yesterday. All are uninstructed. Six presidential electors also were nominated.

Resolutions were adopted approving the refusal of the United States Senate to ratify the peace treaty without reservations, opposing government ownership and operation of railroad but favoring legislation that will provide the United States with an adequate merchant marine, and urging the establishment of a Federal budget. Construction and maintenance of national highways by the Federal government was favored and the policy of maintaining a small standing army with a trained citizen reserve was endorsed.

Senator James E. Watson, of Indiana, in an address arraigned the Democratic national administration, charging President Wilson with having played politics with the question of war and with having done nothing to prepare for the conflict.

"We voted the money and the power to the President," he said, "and now that the war is over we demand that he return every iota of that power into the hands of the Congress and of the people. We do not want to continue an autocracy greater than that which we fought to make the world safe for democracy."

Edward W. Wheeler, of Brunswick; Charles B. Carter of Auburn; George G. Weeks of Fairfield and Col. Frank M. Hume of Houlton, were elected delegates at large.

WORK ON NEW CHURCH

Work has been resumed on the new church building of the Little Flat Rock congregation and it will be pushed forward with all possible speed.

Unappreciative Guest.

Ralph, three years old, was spending the day with his aunt. Thinking a custard would appeal to him, she inquired if he liked them, at which he answered: "Oh, my, yes." However upon being served it fell short of his expectations. He ate a little and passing it to his aunt said: "You can have it Aunt Myra. I am so full, and if you want some water to wash it down, here's my glass."

DRESSMAKER DOING HER BIT

"Since I was a child, I have suffered with stomach trouble and gastric attacks. Doctors could only give me temporary relief. A lady I sewed for told me of having been cured of similar trouble by taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. The first dose proved to me that it would cure me and it has. I am glad to recommend it to other sufferers." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At Druggists Everywhere. (Adv.)

How Acme Worm Bouncer Expells Worms

When the hogs and pigs eat anything the Free Intestinal worms do not like, they lay dormant. The hog which is fed ACME WORM BOUNCER in the SELF FEEDER eats a little—several times a day. The WORM BOUNCER goes into the stomach and intestines STRAIGHT. The time comes when the worm must eat and when he does, the ACME WORM BOUNCER PARALYZES the worm—he then must let go—and in that manner the ACME WORM BOUNCER expells the worms and EXPELLS THEM ALIVE from 5 to 7 days after you commence to feed ACME WORM BOUNCER.

ACME WORM BOUNCER is fed with perfect safety to all pregnant animals, whereas any remedy that kills the worms in the INTESTINES AND STOMACH is very injurious to the animal and very dangerous to use.

GREAT CROSS COUNTRY EVENT IS RUN TODAY

Grand Natinal Steeplechase to Take Place on Aintree Track, Distance 4 1/2 Miles

IS WORTH $25,000 TO WINNER

Liverpool, March 26.—The Grand National Steeplechase, the greatest "cross-country" event in the turf world, was to be run today on the historic Aintree track, distance four and a quarter miles, with thirty-eight formidable obstacles, in the way of fences, walls, ditches and brooks, to be negotiated.

The race is worth $25,000 to the owner of the winner, and a smart field of "leppers" will compete for it.

During the war the race was not run, except in 1915 when a poor field attempted to keep British horse-racing going. Last year also witnessed a very tame contest, but today saw a real revival of pre-war racing. King George, who is the guest of the Earl of Derby at the latter's ancestral home nearby, will be present.

Mrs. H. Peel's ten-year-old Pothlyu, who won the race last year under the crushing burden of 175 lbs., was again in the field with the same weight and was a pronounced favorite. Other horses fancied were Lady Nelson's Ally Sloper (winner in 1915), Major (Gerard's) Trovdown, Major F. Murray's Gerald III, and Frank Babby's Wavefree.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds.

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite Influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharge and soothe and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Pour three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arcline in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

FINANCIAL JUGGLING GOING ON IN BELGIUM

Bankers Buy English Notes and Pay For Them With Florins or French Francs

MONEY FLOWS FROM COUNTRY

Brussels, Feb. 26 (By Mail).—A sidelight on the chaotic condition of European exchanges is provided by the weird international financial juggling going on in Belgium, Brussels being apparently the most favorably situated center for such operations.

Belgian bankers are buying English treasury notes in Holland, and paying for them in Belgian francs, Dutch florins, or French francs according to fluctuations. Germans are buying Dutch florins in Holland and paying for them in Belgian money, while Belgian bankers are buying German marks at less than two cents apiece, and holding with a view to selling when a rise takes place.

Other extraordinary transactions in Italian lire, Swiss francs and any other money, paid for in any body's currency but your own, are recorded, but amid all this juggling Belgian money is flowing out of the country, at an embarrassing rate, tending further to lower the value of the Belgian franc. American and British banks with branches in Brussels offer three times the interest on current accounts as compared with that given by Belgian banks.

CABINET MEETINGS TO SETTLE STATES' RIGHTS BE FEW AND FAR APART

2 OR 3 MAN CONFERENCE

(By United Press.)

Washington, Mar. 26.—Continued failure of President Wilson to assemble his cabinet, a project approved more than a month ago by Dr. Cary T. Grayson, gives color to the belief of some officials that these time-honored conclaves will be few and far-between during the remainder of his administration.

Even before the resignation of Robert Lansing, resulting from Wilson's ire over the calling of "informal conferences" by the then secretary of state, the President had Dr. Grayson's full sanction to convene and preside over his group of departmental secretaries. A week after the sensational episode of February 13, White House officials looked for a cabinet meeting in a short time. It did not eventuate, however, and latterly there has been no talk of an imminent call. The clearing-house method exemplified by the cabinet meetings might be supplanted by two or three-man conferences between the President and secretaries of departments concerned in any stated case.

England's Ancient Inns.

What is the oldest English inn? The Crown of Chiddingfold, for sale, dates from the fourteenth century, but The Fighting Cocks at St. Albans, claiming to date from 1355, is the oldest inhabited house in England. At the Angel at Blyth, Nottingham, Richard bishop of Durham stayed in 1274, and his bill is still preserved.

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 26.—Official and legal experts from Texas and Oklahoma swarmed into Washington today ready for the supreme court fight to decide which state has the right to the possession of acres of valuable oil land in the Red River valley.

Meanwhile, according to arrivals from the west, Texas is holding the disputed territory by the virtue of rifles of rangers and there is danger of an armed clash between factions of the two states, it is said.
